City Profile
Budapest, Hungary

Key Facts
The graphs below show city statistics compared to available data from others surveyed.

Governance Facts
Stakeholder Engagement
Frequency of Interactions

Sectoral & Spatial Linkages
Cross-Sector Policy Co-ordination

Interdependencies With Surrounding Areas

Use of Evaluation Tools for Urban Water Management

Forward-Looking Strategies
Priorities

Who Does What?

City Profile
Budapest, Hungary

National level
- Hungarian Energy and Public Regulatory Authority (economic regulation, licensing, monitoring)
- Ministry of National Development (tariff setting)
- Ministry of Interior (flood protection, water management policies)
- Ministry of Agriculture (water resource management, river basin management policies)
- General Directorate of Water Management
- National Inspectorate for Environment, Nature and Water
- National Public Health and Medical Officer Service (water health and quality inspections and examinations)

Municipal level
- Municipal government (ensures the provision of safe public drinking water and wastewater collection and treatment)

Service provider
- Budapest Waterworks (supplying drinking water, wastewater management and treatment)
- Budapest Sewage Works (wastewater management and treatment)

Institutional map provided by Hungarian Energy and Public Utility Regulatory Authority, Secretariat of the Vice-President for Public Utilities.