

CENTRE FOR TAX POLICY AND ADMINISTRATION GLOBAL RELATIONS PROGRAMME

WELCOME

Thank you for your interest in participating in one of our Global Relations events. The following Guidelines provide useful information on the types of events offered by the Global Relations Programme (face-to-face, blended-learning and soon, e-learning), as well as instructions for registration.

CONTENT

I

How to register to a face-to-face event.

II

How to register to a blended learning event.

III

How to register to an e-learning course.

IV

General instructions on the Knowledge Sharing Platform (KSP) and specific instructions for blended learning events.

FACE-TO-FACE EVENTS

Description

An event leader from the OECD Secretariat, and 1-2 experienced country experts will facilitate the event.

The events consist of a mix of lectures, discussions, presentations and case studies.

Full attendance at all sessions is mandatory.

Participants are expected to understand and speak English (or the language of interpretation where interpretation is provided) and should have sufficient work experience in the event topic area.

These courses are free of charge. Accommodation and lunch might be provided in some of the MTCs.

How to register?

1. Decide on the event you want to attend.

You can check the full calendar of events on our website or on the Knowledge Sharing Platform \(KSP\). You may attend all the events taking place at the Multilateral Tax Centres (MTCs):

Ankara (Turkey)	Seoul (Korea)
Budapest (Hungary)	Vienna (Austria)
Mexico City (Mexico)	Yangzhou (China)

Events taking place in other locations are not open to direct registration.

2. Contact your country representative.

In order to attend the event, you need to be nominated by your country representative. Check here for the list of country representatives.

If your country does not appear on the list, or if you are not able to reach your representative, please contact us at CTP.GlobalRelations@OECD.org

3. Your country representative should nominate you through the Knowledge Sharing Platform and our staff will confirm the request.

If you do not have an account, please create one. Detailed instructions can be found on page 5 of this document. Once you are registered to the course, you will have access to all the course materials and logistical information.

VISA: Please note that participants are responsible for obtaining their visa and travel documents. A generic invitation letter can be found on the event page on the KSP. Should you need a personalised letter, contact us at CTP.GlobalRelations@OECD.org

Should you have any questions, please contact us at: CTP.GlobalRelations@oecd.org

FACE-TO-FACE EVENTS

Checklist

BEFORE THE EVENT

Note: All KSP-related instructions ONLY apply to events held at one of the OECD Multilateral Tax Centres (Ankara, Budapest, Mexico City, Seoul, Vienna, Yangzhou).

Once you have been nominated to the event, contact your country representative for travel arrangements and logistical arrangements.

Apply for your visa (as required based on the event location).

Plan to arrive the day before to be present at the start of the event.

Familiarise yourself with the course agenda and materials through the Knowledge Sharing Platform (KSP).

DURING THE EVENT

Be prepared to share your country's perspectives in the topic area with other participants, experts and event leaders.

Complete an evaluation at the end of the event, before leaving, in order to help us improve the programme.

AFTER THE EVENT

You will receive a certificate, signed on behalf of the OECD and presented by the event leader.

You are strongly encouraged to transmit the acquired knowledge to your team through holding an event for your colleagues to share the information learned. Discuss this with your superior.

Use the KSP to continue your engagement with other participants, post comments in the discussion forum, find out about our e-learning courses, etc.

BLENDED-LEARNING EVENTS

Description

Blended Learning is a combination of on-line training (composed of reading materials, PowerPoint Presentations, videos, self-assessment tests and email tutoring), followed by a face-to-face workshop facilitated by an event leader and experts in one of our MTCs. These courses are free of charge. Find out more on blended learning by watching this video.

How to register?

ONLINE PHASE

1. Register yourself directly to the event. All tax officials, without limitation of number, can register themselves directly through the Knowledge Sharing Platform \(KSP\). You can find detailed instructions for the KSP on pages 5 and 6.
2. Download and study the videos and the reading materials available on the KSP.
3. Once you have studied the content, take the self-assessment test. You will find it under the relevant links section.
4. Once you have successfully passed the test, and if you are interested in exploring the topic further, you will be eligible to move on to the next phase.

Download and study the online materials

Take the self-assessment test (under the relevant links section)

Should you have any questions, please contact us at: CTP.GlobalRelations@oecd.org

FACE-TO-FACE EVENT

The next phase consists on a face-to-face event on the specific topic. These face-to-face events target officials who want to find out more about the topic, discuss it with an OECD expert and share their experiences with other participants.

5. Contact your country representative. Your country representative may nominate 2 participants per country, among those who have passed the test and are suitably qualified and experienced. If your country does not appear on the list, or if you are not able to reach your representative, please contact us at CTP.GlobalRelations@OECD.org

6. Your country representative should nominate you through the Knowledge Sharing Platform and our staff will confirm the request. Once you are registered to the course, you will have access to all the course materials, logistical information and a generic invitation letter.

Visa: Please note that participants are responsible for obtaining their visa and travel documents. Should you need a personalised invitation letter, contact us at CTP.GlobalRelations@OECD.org

E-LEARNING COURSES

Description

E-learning courses will be available through the Knowledge Sharing Platform. The courses will be opened to all tax officials and they will be offered free of charge.

More information will follow on our website in January 2019.

Set up an email alert: If you wish to be notified when the e-learning courses are launched, you may send an email to GRP.elearning@OECD.org and you will automatically receive an email when a new course is launched.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS ON THE KNOWLEDGE SHARING PLATFORM

1

Access the KSP at <https://www.ksp-ta.org/>. If you don't have an account, please create one.

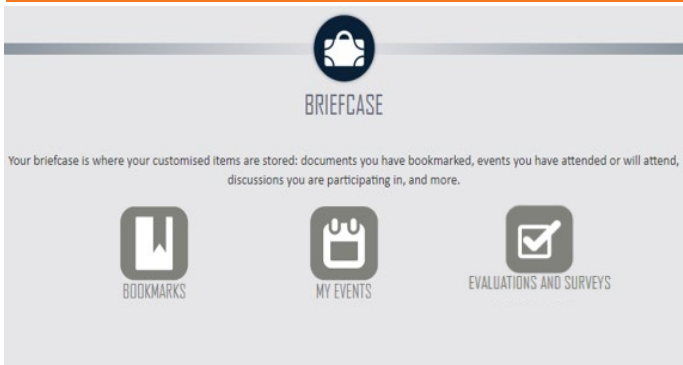

2

Access the training materials, register to an event through the calendar or participate in a discussion forum through the Communities of Practice.

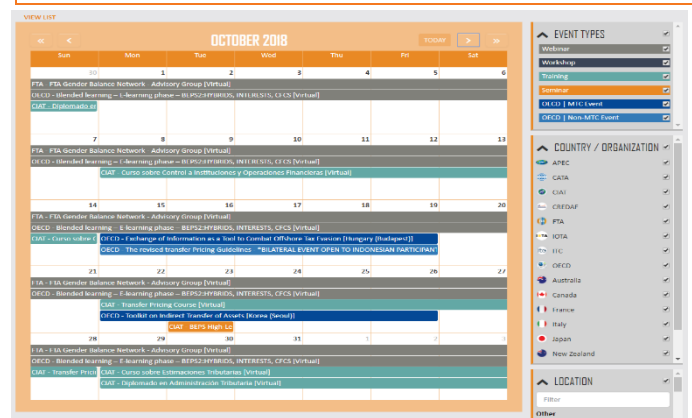

3

The briefcase is your own personal space on the KSP. It includes: documents you have bookmarked, events you have attended or will attend, discussions you are participating in, etc.

4

In the "Calendar of events," you can view what events are available.

5

Types of event registration:

- Open – registration is available to all KSP users.
- Invitation only – registration is performed by the country representative.
- Private – registration is performed by the event leader of the event.
- You can view your status/cancel registration. Access the "My Events" section of your "Briefcase" or scroll over the "Events" area on the KSP home page and click on "My Events".

6

Click on the event of interest and access the materials.

