Latest Evaluation Reports on DEReC

Synthesis of Budget Support Evaluations

Published by: the European Commission

This report presents a synthesis of seven evaluations of general and sector budget support undertaken in Tunisia, Mali, Zambia, Tanzania, South Africa, Mozambique and Morocco over 2010 - 2014. These represent the full set of evaluations completed to date, following the revised methodological approach for evaluation of budget support, adopted by the DAC Network on development evaluation in 2012. The study builds on preliminary findings reported in the Evaluation Insights, based on the Tunisia, Mali and Zambia cases.

Evaluating the Effectiveness of Gender-Based Violence Prevention Programs with Refugees in Chad

Published by: the U.S. Department of State

The evaluation assesses the effectiveness of gender-based violence (GBV) prevention programming for individuals and communities at risk in refugee settings. It identifies appropriate indicators for measuring the effectiveness of GBV prevention interventions; and characterises best practices and lessons learned in engaging men and boys in GBV prevention and response interventions.

Justice Sector Cooperation with Portuguese-speaking African Countries

Published by: Camões, Portugal

The overall goal of this evaluation is to assess the contribution of Portuguese Co-operation to the reinforcement of the capacities of the national justice systems and their strengthening, to determine whether the Portuguese support contributed to greater accessibility and better access to justice for the citizens, as well as to identify new areas of co-operation, based upon the good practices and lessons learned. Executive summary in English

Evaluation of SDC's Thematic Networks

Published by: SDC, Switzerland

This report is an independent evaluation of the functioning and results of the thematic networks in the SDC - Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation. The evaluation shows that overall, the established network structure has proven able to respond to the functions defined in the mandate of the thematic networks in terms of promoting learning and passing on professional and methodological knowledge; providing theme-related operational advice to the organisational units within the network; capitalising on experience and identifying good practices.
