

AFREA

Item V: g

This advertisement was prepared by AfREA to announce the Third African Conference on Monitoring and Evaluation Africa Matters, Evaluation Matters - Joining Forces for Democracy, Governance and Development to be held in South Africa from 1-4 Dec 2004.

2nd meeting
9 – 10 November 2004

THIRD AFRICAN CONFERENCE ON MONITORING AND EVALUATION

Africa Matters, Evaluation Matters - Joining Forces for Democracy, Governance and Development

1–4 Dec 2004 • Workshops 29–30 Nov 2004 • Holiday Inn Cape Town • South Africa

We invite all evaluators, consultants, managers, local, provincial & national government officials, Members of Parliament, donors, academics, students, NGOs and others working with M&E in Africa to join us for this exciting event. Many leading international and African evaluation specialists will attend, including 24 national and regional evaluation association and network leaders and a number of eminent international M&E experts. The previous two conferences were held in Nairobi with more than 300 participants from 34 countries.

Make use of this unique opportunity to share and learn from others, and to expand your professional networks!

The Conference is organised by the African Evaluation Association in association with the South African Public Service Commission. It has the support of major international and local organisations, including the Nelson Mandela Foundation; IOCE; IDEAS; World Bank; GTZ; UNIFEM; IDRC; IUCN; African Development Bank; UNDP; OECD-DAC; USAID; Agence Intergouvernementale de la Francophonie; and others.

CONFERENCE SESSIONS

- Re-thinking Development Evaluation
- Developing Evaluation Capacity
- Evaluation in Diverse Cultural Contexts
- Innovation in M&E Methods and Approaches in Africa
- Community-based M&E
- M&E for Good Governance
- M&E, NEPAD and other Regional Initiatives
- M&E and Poverty Reduction
- M&E for Conservation and Sustainable Development
- M&E in Education
- Gender and Rights-based M&E
- M&E and HIV/AIDS
- M&E and Health
- M&E, Agricultural Research and Rural Development

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

- Participatory M&E tools for building capacity of parliaments in poverty monitoring
- Evaluation of health programmes in complex emergencies
- Intro to assessing organisational performance
- RealWorld evaluation: conducting evaluations under constraints of time, budget and data
- Managing for results using the PROLL integrated performance management framework
- Designing and implementing a results-based M&E system in the public sector
- Building national capacity through effective evaluation associations and networks
- Intro to programme theory and logic models
- Using and teaching logic models
- Contracting for evaluation
- Designing and building performance-based M&E systems: a tool for managing programs and policies

DEADLINES • Call for Papers - 1 Oct • Early Bird registration - 31 Oct

GET MORE INFORMATION

www.afrea.org/conference

tel +27-82 398 3747 or +27-11 880 3790

email admin@afrea.org or

afrea@bronzegate.com

WE LOOK FORWARD TO WELCOMING YOU IN CAPE TOWN!