

Addressing vulnerabilities by financing sustainable development

Lessons for the LDCs

Seminar organized by OECD and Ferdi

Tuesday 1st March - 10 AM / 12 PM

Room CC7 - Conference Centre of OECD - 2 rue André Pascal, Paris 75016

Programme Schedule

10:00 – 10:10	Federico Bonaglia (Senior Counsellor, OECD Development Centre) Welcoming remarks – Introduction of the session
10:10 – 10:25	Patrick Guillaumont (President of Ferdi) Using finance to address vulnerability and make development sustainable: Key messages and lessons for LDCs from the collective book " Financing Sustainable Development: Addressing Vulnerabilities " edited by Matthieu Bousichas and Patrick Guillaumont, 2015, Economica
10:25 – 10:35	Jean-Michel Severino (President of I&P) From his contribution to the book: How to finance small and medium size enterprises in LDCs? The potential of impact investment
10:35 – 10:45	Jean-Michel Debrat (Director General of AfricaFrance) From his contribution to the book: Which partnerships with and between development banks to enhance implementation of the sustainable development agenda in LDCs?
10:45 – 10:55	Philippe Orliange (Director for Strategy, Partnerships and Communication in Agence Française de Développement) How and why the adoption of a broader measurement of official support such as TOSSD could contribute to sustainable development in LDCs?
10:55 – 11:05	Mariana Mirabile (Development Co-operation Directorate of OECD) From her contribution to the book: How can guarantee schemes unlock private investment and help mobilise additional resources for sustainable development?
11:05 – 11:15	Representatives of the LDC IV Monitor Consortium First outcomes of the assessment of IPoA implementation report
11:15 – 11:50	Discussion with the floor
11:50 – 12:00	Federico Bonaglia and Patrick Guillaumont Concluding Remarks