Measuring the scale of foreign bribery
The ground-breaking OECD Foreign Bribery Report analyses the crime of bribery foreign public officials based on data from the 427 foreign bribery cases that have been concluded since the entry into force of the OECD Anti-Bribery Convention. Access the webcast, quotes, photos, charts and highlights from the high-level launch event held in Paris on 2 December.

Economic stagnation compounds demographic pressure on pension systems
The 2014 edition of the OECD Pensions Outlook explores the crucial and far-reaching challenges that pension systems are currently facing. It scrutinises the impact of the financial crisis on pension reform while highlighting key areas where further change should be considered to strengthen the regulatory framework overall.

Annual survey of pension funds’ long-term investments
Throwing a light on the role that institutional investors can play in providing a source of stable long-term capital, this survey monitors and compares the investment behaviour, operating costs, and performances of 86 pension funds from more than 35 countries around the world, accounting for over USD 9.7 trillion of assets under management.

Investment policy, promotion and facilitation in Botswana
This investment policy review examines Botswana’s achievements in developing an open and transparent investment regime and its efforts to reduce restrictions on international investment. Focus areas include investment policy, investment promotion and facilitation, public governance; and, investment in infrastructure.

Monitoring trends in global insurance markets
Using data collected from OECD countries plus selected African, Asian and Latin American economies, the 2014 edition of Global Insurance Market Trends monitors and analyses the overall performance and health of the insurance industry. Access Excel files of the statistical data used to prepare the report.