

Bruno Lévesque

Bruno Lévesque recently joined the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) as Principal Administrator, Financial Education in the Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs. Previously, he was Director, Public Affairs and Consumer Education, at the Financial Consumer Agency of Canada, where he had worked since the agency's creation in 2001. Mr Lévesque's career with the Canadian federal government spanned over 13 years, during which he held various positions with the Department of Finance, Heritage Canada, the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the Federal Office of Regional Development and Statistics Canada. He received his B.A. in Economics from the University of Sherbrooke and Pierre-Mendes-France University, in Grenoble, France, and earned an M.A. in Economics from the University of Sherbrooke.