

Germán Saldívar Osorio

Germán Saldívar Osorio received his Law Degree from the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM) and his Master's Degree in Financial Law from Konstanz University in Germany.

Mr. Saldívar is Deputy General Director of Savings and Financial Regulation at the Ministry of Finance and Public Credit of México, post he has held since 2003. Among other duties, he is coordinator of the saving sector.

From 1997 to 2003 Mr. Saldívar worked in Avantel, S.A. (telecommunications company) where he was General Counsel. Prior to that, he worked in the Legal Counsel Office of the President of Mexico.