

Prof. Hans-Helmut Kotz

...is a Member of the Executive Board of Deutsche Bundesbank, being in charge of the Financial Stability, the Markets as well as the Statistics departments.

In addition, he teaches Money and Credit (in the Diploma program) and the Economics of European Integration (in the Master of Finance Program) at Freiburg University where he is an Honorary Professor in the Faculty of Economics and Behavioral Sciences. Moreover, he is a member of the board of the Konstanz Seminar on Monetary Theory, of the Program Council, Center for Financial Studies, Frankfurt, of the Conseil d'Orientation, Revue d'Economie Financière, Paris, of the Advisory Board, Blekinge Institute of Technology, Sweden, of the Conseil Scientifique, Centre Cournot pour la Recherche en Economie, Paris and of the Scientific Council of the Hamburg World Economic Institute (HWWI), Hamburg. Between 2002 and 2006 he has been in a personal capacity on the European Parliament's Panel of Financial Experts.

He contributed as author as well as editor to a number of books, was a referee, amongst others, for "Kredit und Kapital", the "Journal of European Integration", "Schmollers Jahrbuch – Journal for Applied Social Sciences Studies", the "National Endowment for the Humanities", Washington, and published e.g. in the "Revue d'Economie Financière", "Kredit und Kapital", "Zeitschrift für Betriebswirtschaft", "Wirtschaftsdienst" and "Intereconomics". He writes a column for the French weekly "Option Finance" and has written numerous articles for newspapers (e.g. Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, Frankfurter Rundschau, Süddeutsche Zeitung, Handelsblatt, Börsen-Zeitung, Die Zeit, Die Woche, Le Monde, Libération, Wall Street Journal etc.).