

Mr. Moch. MUCHLASIN

Head of Development and Information Division

Pension Bureau, Ministry of Finance - Indonesia

Moch. Muchlasin graduated from the Universitas Indonesia with a Bachelor of Economics degree in Accounting. He studied management and employment relation in School of Industrial Relations and Organisation Behaviour (IROB) at the University of New South Wales (UNSW)- Sydney, Australia and completed his Master of Commerce degree in 2004. He worked in Directorate General of Financial Institutions – Ministry of Finance in Indonesia on various roles as analyst, examiner and enforcement officer for the Pension Directorate between 1994 and 2006 prior to the establishment of Capital Market and Financial Institutions Supervisory Agency (BapepamLK) in 2006. He has been involved in government guarantee scheme project that lead to the establishment of Indonesian Deposit Insurance Corporation (IDIC) in 2005. His also involves on the amendment of Pension Law and the establishment of Indonesian's Financial Services Authority. He is currently Head of Development and Information Division – Pension Bureau, Ministry of Finance - Indonesia.