

Darren McSHANE

Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority ("MPFA"), Hong Kong, China

Darren McShane is an Executive Director of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority ("MPFA"), Hong Kong. He heads the Regulation and Policy Division, which is responsible for investment regulation, policy development, research and legal services. Prior to his time at the MPFA, he held various senior roles with the Australian Securities Investment Commission (ASIC) and before that he also worked with the Investment Management Regulatory Organisation Ltd. (IMRO), the former fund management regulator in the United Kingdom.