

DATUK RANJIT AJIT SINGH
Managing Director
Securities Commission Malaysia

Ranjit Ajit Singh is Managing Director of the Securities Commission Malaysia and is responsible for the oversight of the Malaysian capital market. This includes direct responsibility for all regulated markets (equity and bonds), related market infrastructure for trading, clearing and settlement, the regulation and authorization of firms and representatives in investment banking, broking and asset management and for corporate and market surveillance.

Ranjit is the chairman of the International Organisation of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) emerging market group on the regulation of secondary markets and co-chair of the task force on bond markets. He is also a member of numerous international task forces and was a member of the expert group that prepared the principles being used for international securities regulation. He serves as member of Bursa Malaysia's capital market advisory committee, the National Payment's Council and the Corporate Debt Restructuring Committee. He has chaired an ASEAN Finance Ministers' task force, served as a member of the IMF's expert group on governance, the Asia-Pacific Financial Reporting Advisory Group (APFRAG), and the Malaysian Accounting Standards Board. He has been an adviser on developmental and regulatory matters to leading emerging markets globally. He currently chairs the private pensions task force in Malaysia.

Ranjit holds a Bachelor of Economics (Honours) degree and a Master of Economics degree in Finance from Monash University, Melbourne and is a fellow of CPA Australia. Prior to joining the Commission, he taught finance at the University of Melbourne, and worked in an international accounting firm.