

Pedro ORDORICA LENERO

President of CONSAR

He is bachelor of arts in law from the Free School of Law (Escuela Libre de Derecho, México.)

He is currently President of the National Commission for Retirement Savings (CONSAR).

He has been in several positions within CONSAR as well as in Banco de México (Mexico's Central Bank) and he has been engaged in independent consulting.

His academic activities include those at the Free School of Law (Escuela Libre de Derecho, México), the Panamerican University (Universidad Panamericana, México), Anahuac University and the Economic and Monetary Commission of Latin America (CEMLA).