

RESUME: Nzomo Mutuku

Nzomo Mutuku is the Manager, Research & Development at the Retirement Benefits Authority in Kenya. He has worked at the Authority since 2000 having previously worked in the Research Department of the Central Bank of Kenya. Nzomo is responsible for development of research based policy prescriptions for the retirement benefits industry in Kenya and also responsible for Authority's strategic planning and quality management system which is certified ISO 9001:2008.

Nzomo holds a Masters of Arts degree in Economics as well as a first class honours Bachelor of Arts (Economics). He has also undertaken training in pensions and financial markets in various countries including at Harvard University and the Wharton Business School in the United States. He was the founder Chairman, Technical Committee on Collaboration between Financial Sector Regulators in Kenya and is a Member, Kenya Financial Services Industry Standards Committee, East African Community High Level Task Force on Monetary Union and the Central Bank of Kenya Market Leaders Forum. He has authored a number of papers and made several presentations at international forums on issues relating to the retirement benefits industry on topics such as training of trustees, consolidation of financial sector regulation, the impact of the global financial crisis, risk based supervision and pension scheme investment in private equity.