Item 6

OECD Management Issues

POLAND

Statement

Mr. Marcin KOROLEC

Under-Secretary of State, Ministry of Economy

We are of the view that co-operation with countries and regions other than identified in last year's resolution has not lost importance for the OECD as—what the resolution had acknowledged—many of them possess strategic interest for the Organisation. Therefore the OECD should not scale down its present outreach activities. We support in this respect the motion of Spain. Other deserving countries—like Ukraine and Georgia, and regions—like Eastern Europe and Central Asia, should remain within the focus of the Organisation.
