

World Bank Institute City Round: Paris

Monday 16th February.
Salle C, Château de la Muette, Paris.

Morning:

- 10h00 Welcome Address by Fernando Carrillo, Chief Advisor, Inter-American Development Bank, Paris
- 10h15 Local Development in OECD Countries: Lessons from the LEED Programme and transferability to Latin America
by Sergio Arzeni, Director of the LEED Programme
- 10h30-11h15 Question and Answer Session
- 11h15 Coffee break
- 11h30 Building collaboration between the OECD LEED Programme and Latin American Cities and Regions.
by Greg Clarke, Director of the London Development Agency and Chair of the OECD LEED Forum of Cities and Regions
- 11h45-12h30 Question and Answer Session
- 12h30-14h30 Buffet Lunch in the Salle George Marshall

Afternoon:

- 14h30 French Local and Regional Development Policy
by Paulette Pommier, Head of Cluster Policy, DATAR and French Delegate to the LEED Directing Committee
- 14h15-14h40 Question and Answer Session
- 14h40 An Overview of the Raffarin Report by Francois Hurel, Executive Director of the APCE and Chair of the OECD LEED Forum on Entrepreneurship
- 15h00-15h30 Question and Answer Session
- 15h30 The role of the EU in Local and Regional Development in Europe
by Xavier Pratts Monné, Head of the Coordination Unit for Employment and Social Affairs, European Commission
- 15h45-16h30 Question and Answer Session
- 16h30 Coffee break
- 17h00 Conclusions by Sergio Arzeni
- 17h15 Closing Remarks by the Honourable Francesco Olivieri, Ambassador of Italy to the OECD