

Table of contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Executive summary | 8 |
| Assessment and recommendations | 11 |
| Chapter 1. Key challenges | 21 |
| A slowing economy, receding inflationary pressures and financial market turmoil ... | 24 |
| Monetary policy must ensure that price stability is maintained | 38 |
| Challenges to build more effective markets and better institutions | 46 |
| Notes | 49 |
| Bibliography | 49 |
| Chapter 2. Financial integration, innovation and the monetary policy transmission mechanism | 53 |
| Financial market deepening | 54 |
| Financial integration in Europe | 58 |
| Financial innovation | 65 |
| Financial innovation and competition affect the channels of monetary policy transmission | 67 |
| Notes | 75 |
| Bibliography | 76 |
| Annex 2.A1. Wealth effects on household consumption in the euro area | 79 |
| Chapter 3. Financial market stability: Enhancing regulation and supervision | 83 |
| Introduction | 84 |
| Why prudential regulation is necessary | 85 |
| Recent turmoil in financial markets | 87 |
| The prudential framework for the single European capital market | 93 |
| The wider macro-prudential framework | 100 |
| Recent European prudential initiatives | 101 |
| Areas for improvement in Europe's prudential framework | 107 |
| What regulatory architecture for the European banking industry? | 116 |
| Notes | 120 |
| Bibliography | 121 |
| Chapter 4. Fiscal policy | 125 |
| Durable progress towards fiscal sustainability has been limited | 126 |
| The role of fiscal policy in the economic cycle | 136 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Fiscal aspects of financial instability | 137 |
| Taxes and spending should be better designed to promote growth..... | 140 |
| Notes | 144 |
| Bibliography | 144 |
| Acronyms and abbreviations. | 147 |
| Boxes | |
| 1.1. A decade of monetary union | 23 |
| 1.2. Implementation of ECB monetary policy | 35 |
| 1.3. The performance of the ECB..... | 43 |
| 2.1. Obstacles to integration in EU mortgage markets..... | 63 |
| 2.2. Structural changes in price setting in the euro area | 73 |
| 2.3. Main recommendations on financial market integration | 75 |
| 3.1. Sources of banking instability | 85 |
| 3.2. Co-ordinated action by European governments to safeguard the stability of the financial system | 90 |
| 3.3. Emerging risks in eastern European countries | 92 |
| 3.4. The Lamfalussy framework | 95 |
| 3.5. Key bodies in the EU banking sector stability framework | 98 |
| 3.6. Leaning against the wind in the build-up to the financial market turmoil .. | 116 |
| 3.7. Main recommendations on financial stability and regulation | 119 |
| 4.1. Oil prices and tax revenues..... | 131 |
| 4.2. The costs of financial instability | 138 |
| 4.3. Main recommendations on fiscal policy..... | 143 |
| Tables | |
| 1.1. Economic performance in euro area countries | 29 |
| 1.2. Short-term outlook..... | 40 |
| 1.3. Alternative measures of inflation performance 1999 to 2007 | 44 |
| 2.1. The Financial Services Action Plan: Main actions | 61 |
| 2.A1.1. Determinants of euro area household consumption | 81 |
| 3.1. Division of responsibility between home and host country | 94 |
| 4.1. Debt sustainability | 132 |
| 4.2. Fiscal costs of past banking crises | 139 |
| Figures | |
| 1.1. Contributions to GDP growth | 24 |
| 1.2. Consumption and income..... | 25 |
| 1.3. Euro area and US GDP growth | 26 |
| 1.4. Contributions to harmonised CPI inflation | 27 |
| 1.5. Components of the euro area HICP | 28 |
| 1.6. Developments during the credit cycle..... | 31 |
| 1.7. Deviations from a Taylor rule and housing activity | 32 |
| 1.8. Short-term interest rates..... | 34 |
| 1.9. The US dollar price of oil..... | 43 |
| 1.10. Inflation and output volatility | 45 |
| 1.11. Foreign exposures of domestically headquartered banks | 47 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 1.12. Key structural indicators | 48 |
| 2.1. Household financial balance sheet | 54 |
| 2.2. MFI assets and loans | 55 |
| 2.3. Euro area international investment position | 56 |
| 2.4. Cross-border assets and deposits of euro area MFIs | 57 |
| 2.5. Share of currency and deposits in household financial assets | 57 |
| 2.6. Share of intra euro area cross-border holdings of securities and equity issued by euro area residents | 58 |
| 2.7. Cross-border loans by euro area MFIs | 59 |
| 2.8. Securitisation issuance | 66 |
| 2.A1.1. Contributions to annual consumption growth | 81 |
| 3.1. Share price indices | 89 |
| 3.2. Supervisory models in EU Countries | 94 |
| 3.3. The Lamfalussy four-level process | 97 |
| 3.4. Key bodies in the EU banking sector stability framework | 99 |
| 3.5. Loan loss provisioning tends to have pro-cyclical effects | 114 |
| 4.1. Fiscal balances | 127 |
| 4.2. Fiscal balances and government gross debt | 128 |
| 4.3. Revenue growth has improved the underlying fiscal position | 128 |
| 4.4. Tax rates | 129 |
| 4.5. Taxation of petrol | 131 |
| 4.6. Spread on government debt | 132 |
| 4.7. Progress towards medium-term budgetary objectives (MTOs) | 135 |
| 4.8. Cyclicity of fiscal policy | 136 |
| 4.9. Total general government expenditure by function | 141 |
| 4.10. Structural policies are less market-orientated | 143 |