

Mr. Frank Van Tongeren: brief note

Frank is currently working in the OECD's Trade and Agriculture Directorate where he leads work on international trade- and agricultural policies. Before joining the OECD he has worked at the Agricultural Economics Institute (LEI) in The Hague, The Netherlands, where he specialised in trade and development issues. Through numerous projects he has worked with government officials, international organisations and academics in countries as diverse as Australia, Bangladesh, Bulgaria, China PR, Ethiopia, Indonesia, Pakistan, Poland, USA, Russia and in most EU15 member States.

Frank has published widely in professional journals.