

Table of contents

Assessment and recommendations	9
I. Economic developments and policy challenges	21
Recent developments and short-term prospects	21
Medium-term prospects	34
Policy challenges	40
II. Fiscal policy	41
Overview	41
Recent developments	42
Medium-term prospects	46
Sustainable retirement income	47
III. Policies to strengthen growth in national income	53
Increasing the employment rate, especially for older workers	53
Reducing the risk that increases in unemployment become structural	59
Improving the performance of the education system	61
Increasing the efficiency with which government achieves its objectives	67
Improved broadband-internet access would help Luxembourg to reap the benefits of the knowledge economy	73
Some aspects of sustainable development	76
Follow up on OECD recommendations for structural reform	87
IV. The economic impact of migration in Luxembourg	97
Introduction	97
Immigration in Luxembourg	98
Migrants in the Luxembourg economy	103
Fiscal impacts	108
Migration policy challenges	110
Conclusions	122
Notes	124
List of acronyms	137
Bibliography	139
Annexes
I. Output gaps, unemployment gaps, and the Phillips curve	146
II. Sources and methods underlying the calculation of public expenditure per student in Luxembourg	153

Boxes

1. Measuring value added in the banking sector	24
2. The 2002 law on occupational disability and redeployment	57
3. Main features of the non-tertiary education system	63
4. The integration of policies across sustainable development areas	77
5. Follow up on OECD recommendations for structural reform since 2001	88
6. Determinants of real house prices	120

Annexes

A1. The unemployment rate Grande région	147
--	-----

Tables

1. Demand and output: recent trends and projections	22
2. FISIM in banks' balance sheets and national accounts	24
3. Effects on GDP of changing levels and accounting treatments of FISIM	26
4. Current balance of payments	27
5. The contribution of indexation to average wage increases	33
6. General government budget and debt	42
7. Performance indicators: sustainable retirement income	48
8. Net replacement rates 60 months after claiming benefit, 1999	60
9. School-level indices in selected OECD countries	65
10. Main indicators: climate change	78
11. Main indicators: trade and development co-operation	82
12. Producer support equivalents and their components	85
13. Sectoral employment shares: Luxembourgers, resident foreigners and frontaliers , 2002	99
14. Employment in foreign-owned enterprises, 1998	104
15. Real house prices, construction costs and land prices	117
16. An error correction model of real house prices	120
17. Shares of rental dwellings in the total stock of housing	121

Figures

1. Real value added by activity	23
2. Share of FISIM in banks' gross production	25
3. Contributions to real GDP growth	28
4. The personal income tax reform has supported private consumption	29
5. Employment and unemployment	30
6. Employment by sector	31
7. Labour productivity in the business sector	32
8. Confidence indicators point to weak activity	35
9. Monetary conditions	36
10. Contributions to total expenditure growth	43
11. Primary expenditure per capita in euro area countries, 2002	44
12. Changes in total expenditure as a share of GDP	45
13. Type of pension for first claimant	51
14. Employment rates in selected OECD countries	54
15. Employment rates of older workers	55
16. Education attainment of the population aged 25-59, 2002	62
17. Public expenditure on education and student reading literacy	66
18. Degree of sophistication of on-line public services	70

19. SMEs reporting administrative burdens as a major constraint on business performance	71
20. Percentage of EU households with Internet access	74
21. Broadband access in OECD countries per 100 inhabitants	75
22. DSL Internet access prices in selected OECD countries	75
23. Carbon dioxide emissions	79
24. GHG emissions, targets and projections	79
25. Employment: Luxembourgers, resident foreigners and frontaliers	100
26. Foreign population of EU and non-EU origin, in selected countries	101
27. Luxembourg residents: education attainment by nationality	103
28. Relative salaries and employment shares of Luxembourg nationals, by sector	107
29. Luxembourg residents: household income distribution by nationality	108
30. Participation rates	111
31. Relative performance of immigrants and national secondary school students	113
32. Cross-border flows in the Grande région , 2001	115
33. Ratio of house prices to disposable income	119
Annexes
A1. Output and unemployment gaps	148
A2. Standard deviation of output gaps	149