

PORTUGAL

MANUEL PINHO MINISTER OF ECONOMY & INNOVATION

Born in Lisbon, 1954.

Minister of Economy and Innovation of Portugal
(since 2005-03-12).

PhD. in Economics, by the University of Paris X (1983).

Graduated in Economics, by the Technical University of Lisbon, (1976).

1994-2005

- Administrator of Espírito Santo Bank, S.A.
- Vice-President of BES Investment, S.A.
- Administrator of ESAF, SGPS, S.A.
- Administrator of BES Finance
- Administrator of BES Overseas
- President of Espírito Santo Research
- Member of the Social and Economical Council

1992-1994

- General Director of Treasure
- Visiting scholar of Stern School, New York University
- President of Public Credit Board
- Representative of the Portuguese Government at the Monetary Committee, Brussels
- Vice-President of CMVM Consultative Council
- Administrator of European Investment Bank
- President of Supervisory Commission, Caixa Geral de Depósitos

1984-1987

- Economist at the International Monetary Fund, Washington D.C.

1982-1984

- Professor at the Portuguese Catholic University and at the Economy Superior Institute

Political Biography:

- Minister of Economy and Innovation of the XVII Constitutional Government (since 2005-03-12)

SOURCE: Ministry of Economy and Innovation, Portugal

<http://www.min-economia.pt/innerPage.aspx?idCat=37&idMasterCat=35&idLang=2>