

OECD FORUM 2005

FUELLING THE FUTURE: Security, Stability, Development

Financing for Development

Masahiro Kawai, Professor of Economics, University of Tokyo, and Economic Advisor to the President, Asian Development Bank

Table 1. Indicators of Progress Recommended by Paris Declaration
To be measured nationally and monitored internationally

Ownership		Target for 2010
1	Recipient countries have operational development strategies — Number of countries with national development strategies (including PRSs) that have clear strategic priorities linked to a medium-term expenditure framework and reflected in annual budgets.	At least 75%* of recipient countries
Alignment		Targets for 2010
2	Reliable country systems — Number of recipient countries that have procurement and public financial management systems that either (a) adhere to broadly accepted practices or (b) have a reform programme in place to achieve these.	To be set by September 2005
3	Aid flows are aligned on national priorities — Percent of aid flows to the government sector that is reported on recipient countries' national budgets.	85%* of aid flows reported on budgets
4	Strengthen capacity by co-ordinated support — Percent of donor capacity-development support provided through co-ordinated programmes consistent with recipient countries' national development strategies.	To be set by September 2005
5	Use of country systems — Percent of donors and of aid flows that use recipient country procurement and/or public financial management systems in recipient countries, with either (a) adhere to broadly accepted good practices or (b) have a reform programme in place to achieve these.	To be set by September 2005
6	Strengthen capacity by avoiding parallel implementation structures — Number of parallel project implementation units (PIUs) per country.	To be set by September 2005
7	Aid is more predictable — Percent of aid disbursements released according to agreed schedules in annual or multi-year frameworks.	At least 75%* of such aid released on schedule
8	Aid is untied — Percent of bilateral aid that is untied.	Continued progress
Harmonization		Targets for 2010
9	Use of common arrangements or procedures — Percent of aid provided as programme-based approaches	At least 25%*
10	Encourage shared analysis — Percent of (a) field missions and/or (b) country analytic work, including diagnostic reviews that are joint.	To be set by September 2005
Managing for Results		Target for 2010
11	Results-oriented frameworks — Number of recipient countries with transparent and monitorable performance assessment frameworks to assess progress against (a) the national development strategies and (b) sector programmes.	75%* of recipient countries
Mutual Accountability		Target for 2010
12	Mutual accountability — Number of recipient countries that undertake mutual assessments of progress in implementing agreed commitments on aid effectiveness including these in this Declaration.	To be set by September 2005

Note: Figures with * will be confirmed or amended by September 2005.

Source: OECD/DAC High Level Forum, Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness, March 2005.