

Klaus P. Regling

Born: 3 October 1950; German nationality

Education:

University of Hamburg, Bachelor's degree in Economics, 1971

University of Regensburg, Master's degree in Economics, 1975

Professional Experience:

- 1975-1980                      International Monetary Fund, Washington
- 1975-77                      *Young Professional Program:
Research and African Department*
- 1977-80                      *Economist in the Research Department:
Participation in the preparation of the World Economic Outlook*
- 1980-1981                      German Bankers' Association:
Economist in the Economics Department
- 1981-1985                      German Ministry of Finance:
Economist in the European Monetary Affairs Division
- 1985-1991                      International Monetary Fund, Washington and Jakarta
- 1985-89                      Economist/Senior Economist/Deputy Chief in the International Capital Markets Division: Preparation of capital markets reports; program negotiations with African and Asian countries
- 1989-91                      Resident Representative in Indonesia
- 1991-1998                      German Ministry of Finance
- 1991-93                      Chief of the International Monetary Affairs Division: IMF, G7, world economy
- 1993-94                      Deputy Director-General for International Monetary and Financial Relations: preparation of EMU, IMF, EBRD, World Bank, export credit guarantees, debt, G7
- 1995-98                      *Director-General for European and International Financial Relations:
All European and international issues of relevance for Ministry of Finance (except tax issues)*
- Other Positions 1993-98:
Alternate Governor of ADB and IADB
Member of the Supervisory Board - Hermès Credit Insurance
- 1999 - 2001                      Managing Director, Moore Capital Strategy Group, London:
Analysis of economic policies in major industrial and emerging markets
- Since July 2001                      European Commission
Director-General for Economic and Financial Affairs
- Other Positions since 2001:
Member of the Economic and Financial Committee
Alternate Governor EBRD
Member of the Board of the European Investment Bank