

Ms Flore-Anne MESSY
Administrator, Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs, OECD

Ms Flore-Anne MESSY is administrator in the Directorate for Financial and Enterprise Affairs of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). She joined the OECD in June 2000 to work and develop the activities of the Secretariat for the Insurance and Private Pensions Committee (IPPC).

She was in charge of a series of projects in the financial sector including the governance of insurers; the financial management of large-scale catastrophes; work related to ageing and insurance; private financing of health care and the coverage of medical malpractice. She is now particularly in charge and involved in the OECD financial education project focusing on ageing and insurance issues.

More generally, she is contributing to the IPPC regular meetings and programme of work and to the planning and organisation of OECD Global events in relation to financial education (including meeting of the International Network on Financial Education) and insurance issues. She is also in charge of the establishment and development of the International Gateway for Financial Education (www.financial-education.org).

Prior to the OECD she worked at Deloitte and Touche Tomatsu Audit Paris, in the insurance and banking field. She graduated from the institute of political studies of Paris and received her thesis in international economies from University Pantheon-Sorbonne of Paris in 1998.
