

Thomas M. Clark
GE Money Asia
Vice President – Government Relations

Date of birth & place: August 16, 1963. Lynn, Massachusetts, USA

Academic Background :

|      |   |
|------|---|
| 1989 | Columbia University School of Law, J.D.Notes Editor, Columbia Law Review |
| 1985 | Harvard College, A.B.   |

Professional Background :

|                   |  |
|-------------------|--|
| 2005 May- present | Vice President, Government Relations, GE Money Asia, Tokyo, Japan  |
| 2005May-2006 Oct. | Chief Legal Counsel ( Acting ), GE Consumer Finance, Tokyo, Japan   |
| 1999-2005 May     | Chief Legal Counsel, GE Consumer Finance, Tokyo, Japan   |
| 1996-1999         | Legal Counsel, GE Capital Card Services; Stamford, Connecticut, USA  |
| 1992-1996         | Attorney, Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering ( now Wilmer, Cutler, Pickering, Hale & Dorr), Washington, DC, USA       |
| 1990-1992         | Attorney, Sullivan & Cromwell, New York, NY, USA   |
| 1989-1990         | Law Clerk, Circuit Judge James L. Buckley, US Court of Appeals for District of Columbia Circuit, Washington, DC, USA |

- Co-Chair of Banking & Finance Committee, The American Chamber of Commerce in Japan (“ACCJ”).
- Board of Directors, National Center for APEC (“NCAPEC”)
- Bar Admissions: Massachusetts, New York, District of Columbia, U.S. Supreme Court
- During almost 10 years of legal and government relations experience in Asia, have written on and served as expert panelist on topics related to financial services policy, regulation, legal compliance, investment liberalization in financial services, credit bureau policy, and other matters.
- Languages: English (Native), Japanese, French, Italian