

OECD Directorate for Education

Education Policy Implementation: Mexico

www.oecd.org/edu/calidadeducativa

MEXICO – OECD Meeting on Improving the Quality in Education in Mexico

27 February 2009

Venue: OECD Headquarters, Paris

AGENDA

- 08:30 -09:00 Welcome (Coffee and croissants)
- 09:00- 10:10 Introduction by:
Barbara Ischinger, Director, OECD Directorate of Education.
Angel Gurría, OECD Secretary General.
Augustin García Lopez, Ambassador, Permanent Delegation of Mexico to the OECD.
- 10:10- 10:40 Present situation with the Alliance
By Jorge Santibáñez, Head of the Education Policy Planning and Evaluation Unit (UPEPE).
- 10:40- 11:15 Presentation and discussion of the Mexico/OECD Agreement and the 2008-2010 Work Programme.
- Making change happen: the present challenge in OECD countries.
by Aart de Geus, Deputy Secretary General, OECD.
 - Directorate for Education work on making change happen
By Barbara Ischinger, Director, OECD Directorate for Education.
 - Main outcomes of the December 2008 Mexico Conference
By Bernard Hugonnier, Deputy Director, OECD Directorate for Education.
- 11:15 -11:30 Coffee Break

- 11:30- 13:00 Session continues
- School management and social participation, School Leadership.
 - Entrance and Promotion, Professionalisation.
- By Deborah Roseveare, Head of Education Training Programme Division, OECD Directorate for Education.
-
- Incentives and stimuli.
 - Establishing link between ENLACE and PISA.
- By Andreas Schleicher, Head of Indicators and Analysis Division, OECD Directorate for Education.

13:00 -15:00 Lunch

- 15:00-16:30 The role of Trade unions in educational reform.
- General introduction by John Evans, Secretary-General of the Paris-based Trade Union Advisory Committee to the OECD, TUAC.
 - The experience of England by John Bangs, Assistant Secretary, National Union of Teachers, England and Wales.
-
- 16:30-17:00 Wrap Up Session: Aart de Geus, Barbara Ischinger, Bernard Hugonnier.