

One NorthEast's response to the OECD Territorial Review of Newcastle and the North East

Pat Ritchie
Director of Strategy and Development
One NorthEast

ONE response (1)

- Welcome the report and strongly support the analysis
- Structural challenge
- City region concept and links with rural areas
- Stronger regional research and evidence base
- Greater prioritisation
- Capitalising on our strengths

- Aspirational and achievable development strategies
- 'Mixed economy' approach
- Robust structures to take forward our choices
- Regional level conduit for economic development
- Financial incentives structured around a RES framework for investment