

Esa Antti Juhani KAUNISTOLA is Director of Trade Policy, Corporate relations and Responsibility at Nokia Corporation. After working in Postipankki, a Finnish banking group as legal council, he has taken up various positions in Nokia corporation before taking his current position this year. He earned his Master of Law in the London School of Economics and Political Science, University of London.