

Mr. Caio Galvão de França: brief note

Caio Galvão de França is currently the Chief of Staff of the Brazilian Ministry for Agrarian Development (MDA). He manages relations with Brazilian universities and social movement about rural development and agrarian reform issues. Mr. França is graduated in Agronomy and has his Master's Degree in Sociology from Minas Gerais Federal University. During 2003-07, he was also the Coordinator of Rural Development and Agrarian Studies Center (NEAD/MDA), Brazil. Coordenador do Núcleo de Estudos Agrários e Desenvolvimento Rural, 2003-2007.