

Bettina Kashefi

State Secretary to the Minister for Social Security

Sweden

Bettina Kashefi is State Secretary to the Minister for Social Security, Cristina Husmark Pehrsson.

Areas of responsibility

- sickness insurance
- pensions
- social insurance administration

Biography

Born in 1960.

Education

Degree in Social Sciences with a major in socioeconomic investigative and prognostic methodology, Uppsala University

Studies in English, peace and conflict theories, general computer processing, Uppsala University

Studies in English, San Diego State University

Social Science Programme, Hudiksvall Upper Secondary School

Positions and assignments

2006-

State Secretary, Ministry of Health and Social Affairs

2005-2006

Principal Secretary and Administrative Director of the Delegation for measures against incorrect payments from the social security systems

2001-2005

Deputy Director-General and Head of the Division for Income Distribution Analysis, Ministry of Finance

2003

Acting Head of the Economic Affairs Division, Ministry of Finance

1999-2001

Senior advisor, Directorate for Employment, Education and Social Policy, OECD

1998-2001

Inquiry chair/lobbyist, Economic Affairs Department, Federation of Swedish Industries

1992-1998

Deputy Director, Budget Division, Ministry of Finance

1991-1992

Market analyst, Swedish Sparbanken Group

1988-1991

Desk Officer, Distribution Policy Division, Ministry of Finance

1985-1988

Research assistant, Trade Union Institute for Economic Research (FIEF)

1985

Research assistant, Department of Economics, Uppsala University

1984

Consultant, Aga Gas AB