

Mr. Yuriy PROZOROV
Deputy Head of the State Commission for Regulation of Financial Services Markets of Ukraine (July 2009 – by now)

Graduated from Kiev Polytechnic Institute (“Industrial Electronics”, 1992), Kiev Banking School (“Finance and Credit”, 1998) and London Guildhall University (“Investment Banks”, 1999).

Mr. Prozorov has been working in the financial sector since 1994, including in the AVAL bank (currently – Raiffaisen Bank Aval) in various positions.

2001 - 2004 Chief Advisor on Monetary Policy at the Council of the National Bank of Ukraine.

2004 - 2005 Banking Coordinator at the Ukrainian Municipal Development Fund (World Bank Project); chief financial analyst of information and analytical group “Expert-Ukraine”.

2005 - 2006 Development Director at PFTS Stock Exchange (PFTS), Chief of PFTS Index Committee.

2006 – 2008 Director of Analytical Department of TEKT Investment Group, Head of Supervisory Board of TEKT Asset Management Company.

2008 – 2009 General Director of DAGDA LLC.

President of the Ukrainian Society of Financial Analysts from 2005.

Ukraine’s representative in the European Federation of Financial Analysts Societies (EFFAS).

Participated in preparing the Pension, Banking and Securities Laws of Ukraine.

The author of over 100 articles and publications in Ukraine and abroad on monetary policy, banking and pension system development and stock market analysis.

From 2004 – Research Associate at Economic theory department of the Institute on Economy and Forecasting of National Academy of Sciences of Ukraine.