

ERICH HARBRECHT

Born: 15 May 1947
Nationality: German

Bundesbankdirektor
Head of International
Financial Markets Division

Universities

Freiburg and Mannheim,
Diploma in business administration 1974

Deutsche Bundesbank

Joined in October 1974

Research Department

Money market and liquidity policies (1978- 86)

Banking Supervision Department

Head of section: Harmonisation of banking supervision; (1986 - 1992)
Special responsibilities: Basle Committee on Banking Supervision; Co-operation with securities
regulators (IOSCO); Financial Conglomerates

Bank for International Settlements

Member of the Secretariat of the Basle Committee on Banking Supervision (1992 - 94)

Bundesbank Capital Markets Department

Head of International Financial Market Unit
1994 –2002)
Research and analysis on financial markets issues.

Bundesbank International Relations Department

Current Position: Head of International Financial System Division

Tasks: Stability of the international Financial System;
Financial stability analysis; structural issues of financial systems
Contacts with international institutions on financial system issues (IMF, BIS, OECD)

International Responsibilities

Member of OECD Committee on Financial Markets;
CMF (since Jan. 1996);
Vice chairman of CMF (since March 1997).