

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Assessment and recommendations	7
I. Recent developments and prospects for the near term.....	15
Overview	15
Domestic demand and foreign trade	16
Sectoral financial balances	23
Persistent labour market tightness	23
Wage and price pressures continue.....	25
The outlook to 2003.....	29
II. Macroeconomic policies	33
Overview	33
Monetary policy under strain from higher inflation.....	34
The scope for expansionary fiscal policy is exhausted	41
EMU membership under discussion	48
III. Enhancing the effectiveness of public expenditure.....	51
Introduction.....	51
Public expenditure in perspective	53
Institutional arrangements and the policy-making process	55
Assessing expenditure and outcomes in selected areas.....	59
Some tools and techniques for getting better results from public spending	72
Conclusions and policy recommendations	75
IV. Raising Sweden’s economic capacity	77
Long-term growth trends and prospects.....	77
Raising the participation rate.....	80
Hours worked and tax evasion	88
Tax policies	92
The housing market	98
Conclusion and policy recommendations	105
Notes	110
Bibliography.....	116
Annexes
I. The STEMU committee’s agenda for reforms of the fiscal policy framework.....	120
II. Income distribution of taxes and public expenditure	121
III. Equalisation — “the same standard for the same price”	124
IV. Individual learning accounts.....	125
V. Old-age pensions	127
VI. Calendar of main economic events	129

Boxes

1.	The collective agreements from 2001	26
2.	Reform to the financing of childcare services	47
3.	Buffer funds.....	49
4.	Challenges and pressures facing public expenditure.....	51
5.	Reforms for better management and greater choice.....	60
6.	Reforms to the health care sector.....	68
7.	Policy recommendations	75
8.	Policy guidelines for disability and work in OECD countries.....	85
9.	Calculating housing allowances.....	96
10.	Rent setting in the rental housing market	100

Tables

1.	Household income and consumption growth, 1995-2001	17
2.	Private fixed investment, 1995-2001	19
3.	Developments in foreign trade, 1995-2001	21
4.	Sectoral financial balances	23
5.	Indicators of wage inflation, 1997-2001	26
6.	Costs, prices and profitability in the business sector	27
7.	Various measures of inflation, 1997-2002	28
8.	Outlook for 2002 and 2003.....	30
9.	Ownership of shares in Swedish quoted companies by sector	37
10.	Inflation and inflation expectations.....	39
11.	Mortgage institutions' lending to households, 1996-2001	43
12.	The general government budget balance, 1998-2002	45
13.	Indicators of the fiscal policy stance.....	46
14.	Public outlays in OECD Countries	53
15.	Expenditure ceilings.....	56
16.	Student performance and educational cost	61
17.	Teachers salaries in selected OECD countries.....	62
18.	Comparisons of long-term care systems.....	70
19.	Social insurance expenditures.....	72
20.	Participation and hours for men and women	80
21.	Age-related disability benefit inflow rates	83
22.	Hours of work required to pay for household services.....	90
23.	Tax evasion in the business sector	91
24.	Reasons for tax fraud	92
25.	Direct government housing subsidies, 1988-2000.....	99
26.	Structural Policy Recommendations	107

Annexes

A1.	Impact of taxes, transfers and public consumption by quintile.....	122
A2.	Impacts on GINI coefficient	123

Figures

1.	Macroeconomic performance	16
2.	Forces shaping private consumption.....	18
3.	Investment and capacity utilisation in manufacturing.....	20
4.	Government real consumption.....	20
5.	Goods exports	22
6.	Labour market developments	24
7.	Profit shares in Sweden, the euro area and the United States.....	27
8.	Inflation and inflation expectations.....	29
9.	Exchange rate developments	35
10.	The stock market cycle in Sweden, the euro area and the United States	36
11.	Short-term interest rates	38
12.	The Riksbank's inflation forecasts.....	40
13.	Long-term interest rates	42
14.	The fiscal balance and the public debt	44
15.	Composition of public outlays.....	52
16.	Composition of publicly-funded social expenditure	54
17.	Composition of local expenditures	54
18.	Ratio of students to teaching staff.....	63
19.	Intended instruction time.....	64
20.	Health status indicators	66
21.	Key features of health expenditure	67
22.	Inpatient hospital care by age groups.....	69
23.	Shares of elderly and very elderly in OECD countries	70
24.	Long-term growth patterns	78
25.	Dependency ratios.....	79
26.	Scenarios of labour supply	79
27.	Average age of withdrawal from the labour force	81
28.	Sickness and disability beneficiaries.....	83
29.	Physical strain at work	84
30.	Sickness rates.....	89
31.	Average tax wedges	93
32.	Marginal tax wedges	94
33.	Marginal effective tax rates	95
34.	Recurrent taxes on immovable property.....	98
35.	Residential investment in Sweden, the euro area and the United States	100
36.	Vacancies and demolitions in the public housing sector.....	101
37.	Completed dwellings and real house prices.....	102
38.	Residential investment in OECD countries	103

Annexes

A1.	Age distribution of taxes, transfers and public services.....	121
A2.	Disposable income and individual public services by household type	122