Yes No Not sure/ NA

If NO, please provide details of the Aid for Trade you received in 2006 and 2007.

[Please describe with figures, and include any activities that may fall under 'other trade-related needs']

Botswana has not benefited from WTO Aid for Trade . Trade strategies are financed by the Government and independent donors.

- End of Section 2 -

Please feel free to provide any additional information on aid-for-trade flows

¹ The CRS profile summarises the commitments and disbursements reported by donors to the OECD Creditor Reporting System on the aid categories most closely associated with Aid for Trade as defined by the WTO Task Force, specifically support for trade policy and regulations, trade development, trade-related infrastructure, building productive capacity and trade-related adjustment (available from 2008 only).

3 HOW DO YOU IMPLEMENT YOUR TRADE STRATEGY?

Ownership

Q3.1 Who is responsible for overseeing and coordinating the implementation of your trade strategies including activities funded by ODA?

- A national committee is responsible for coordination and implementation.
- The Trade Department has a coordinating role but implementation is overseen by each relevant department separately.
- The national aid agency has the main coordinating role but implementation is overseen by each relevant department separately.
- There is no central coordination department. Each relevant department is separately responsible for implementation.
- Other, please describe:

If you have (or are in the process of establishing) a national committee, please describe its main functions, its membership (e.g. ministries, private sector), frequency of its meetings and to whom the committee reports. [Please describe and exemplify below.]

The Department of International Trade(DIT) (under Ministry of Trade & Industry) plays a leading role in all Trade negotiations. As the issues to be negotiated spread across various sectors of the economy, the importance of including the private sector and non-governmental organisations in the negotiating process has been realized. It is for this reason that the National Committee on Trade Policy and Negotiations (NCTPN) was formed with DIT as its Secretariat. The Committee is chaired by the Permanent Secretary and its members are drawn from across section of stakeholders, including government, parastatal organisations, private sector,academic and research institutions, civil society and non-governmental organizations.NCTPN is supported by twelve Technical Committees that are expected to perform analytical work on various sectoral issues.

Q3.2 Do you engage in dialogue with the private sector and other key domestic stakeholders about the formulation and implementation of your trade strategy?

- Nearly always Regularly Rarely Not sure/ NA

If you do, please describe your main stakeholders and the focus and frequency of your dialogue. [Please describe and exemplify below.]

Main stakeholders includes Government, parastatal organisations, private sector,academic and research institutions, civil society and non-governmental organizations. Meetings are held quarterly by NCTPN or they are always invited to the National consultation workshops on any Trade area discussed.
