

Opening of an OECD Depository Library in the Istanbul Chamber of Commerce

On October 8th, 2003 Dr. Cengiz Ersun, the Secretary General of the Istanbul Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Rainer Geiger, OECD, Deputy Director of the Directorate for Financial, Fiscal and Enterprise Affairs officially opened the OECD Depository Library to be based in the Istanbul Chamber of Commerce, Turkey.

The Istanbul Chamber of Commerce, which has more than 300,000 thousand member companies, already has a fully-fledged internal library of Turkish and international publications. However, the addition of OECD publications will greatly enhance their current stockings and all publications will be accessible to the public.

Visitors can view publications from all OECD directorates such as Financial, Fiscal and Enterprise Affairs, Development Co-operation or Statistics. Find Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, OECD Reviews on Regulatory Reform and OECD Economic Surveys on Turkey and other countries. Read about Benchmarking Industry-Science Relationships, Best Practices in Local Development, and Measures Taken to Combat Bribery.
