

Carlos Alberto Primo Braga, a Brazilian national, is currently Director, Economic Policy and Debt in the Poverty Reduction and Economic Management Network (PREM), World Bank. His main roles are to: (1) provide integrated support to country programs in the areas of debt, macro-policy and shared and sustainable growth; (2) provide low-income countries with better growth diagnostics, as well as debt management policy advice; and (3) provide institutional guidance in the areas of fiscal policy, macroeconomic management, and overall economic policy, acting as the Chairman of the Economic Policy Sector Board of the World Bank.