

OECD/Eurostat workshop:
Application of advanced temporal disaggregation techniques to economic statistics

Thursday 27 November: Room S182, floor -1, Tour Europe, La Defense, Paris

Draft agenda

Time	Topic	Presenter(s)
9:30 – 9:40	1) Introduction and aims of the workshop	Enrico Giovannini
9:40 – 10:20	2) Introduction to the principles of benchmarking and temporal disaggregation, and the techniques and methodologies underpinning the current version of ECOTRIM	Tommaso Di Fonzo
10:20- 10:50 11:10- 11:40	3) Explanation and demonstration of the ECOTRIM program. Examples of key uses by Eurostat and other organisations	Roberto Barcellan
10:50- 11:10	Morning tea
11:40- 12:30	4) Recent developments in the field of benchmarking and temporal disaggregation	Tommaso Di Fonzo
12:30- 13:00	5) A first implementation of recent developments at the Bank of Italy	Giuseppe Bruno
13:00- 14:30	Lunch
14:30- 15:00	6) Use of multivariate methods in temporal disaggregation: Eurostat research	M. Mazzi / M. Savio
15:00- 15:30	7) Possible applicability of these techniques (i.e. all discussed) to the work of the OECD	Charles Aspden
15:30- 16:00	8) Promotion of ECOTRIM (including future developments) to EU member states	Barcellan / Mazzi / Savio
16:00- 16:20	Afternoon tea
16:20- 16:50	9) Possible role of the OECD promoting ECOTRIM to non EU countries	OECD NAES & STES divisions
16:50- 17:20	10) Possible next steps for this work, including the possibility of holding a wider conference involving representatives from OECD Member countries and academics	All
17:20- 17:30	11) Conclusion	Enrico Giovannini

Papers and presentations

Background papers will be provided for agenda items 2), 3), 4) and 6). Power point presentations for each agenda item should be sent to Richard McKenzie (richard.mckenzie@oecd.org).

OECD
10 November