

Minister for Employment
Inger Støjberg - Denmark

- Inger Støjberg, born March 16th 1973 in Hjerk, daughter of farmer Mathias Støjberg and assisting spouse Gudrun Støjberg.
- Matriculated from Morsø Upper Secondary School, 1993.
- Member of Viborg County Council, 1994-2002.
- Journalist, 'Informations Akademiet', 1999.
- Editor of the newspaper 'Viborg Bladet' 1999-2001.
- Member of the Folketing from November 20th 2001

Year
2009 -	Minister for Employment and Minister for Gender Equality from April 7th 2009
2007 -	The Liberal Party's political affairs spokesman
2007 -	Member of the Finance Committee
2007 -	Member of the Standing Orders Committee
2007 -	Member of the Economic and Political Affairs Committee
2007 -	Member of the Foreign Policy Committee
2005 - 2007	Vice-chairwoman of the parliamentary group of the Liberal Party
2005 - 2007	The Liberal Party's gender equality spokesman
2005 - 2007	The Liberal Party's spokeswoman on food, family, and consumer affairs
2005 - 2007	Chairwoman of the Liberal Party's Food, Agriculture and Fisheries Committee
2005 - 2007	Member of the Environment and Regional Planning Committee
2005 - 2007	Member of the Social Services Committee
2005 - 2007	Member of the Trade and Industry Committee
2005 - 2007	Member of the Propositions Concerning the Constitution Committee
2005 - 2007	Member of the Nature Protection Board of Appeal
2003 - 2005	Chairwoman of the Islands Contacts Committee
2001 - 2005	Member of the Council of Europe

Year	Education
2001 -	Freelance journalist, 'Støjberg Kommunikation'
1999 - 2001	Editor of the newspaper 'Viborg Bladet'
1999	Journalist, 'Informations Akademiet'
1995	One-year higher commercial examination from Viborg Business College
1993	Matriculated from Morsø Upper Secondary School