THIS seminar will be held at the Instituto de Estudios Fiscales (Institute for Fiscales Studies), within the framework of the agreements signed by the State Secretariat for Finance and Tax Administration. Its main purpose is to provide an overview of main trends in tax reforms. Corporate and wealth taxation, personal income tax and indirect tax reforms and green taxation are specially focused. With this target, a selected group of experts from the OECD, Universities and Administration will participate, providing a multidisciplinary approach which is essential for the design of alternative tax reforms.

Documentation on recent tax reforms within the OECD will be distributed to attendees.
