

WHAT'S SO SPECIAL ABOUT EMERGING MARKET MULTINATIONALS? A FOCUS ON CHINA AND INDIA

- FRIDAY 6TH JULY 2007 -

Château de la Muette, OECD Headquarters, 2 rue André Pascal, 75016 Paris, Room G

WELCOME: 9:00-9:10am

Welcome: Angel Gurría, Secretary General, OECD

INTRODUCTION
9:10am-9:20am

Chair: Javier Santiso, Chief Economist and Deputy Director at the OECD Development Centre

SESSION 1
9:20am-10:30am

The Internationalization of Emerging Multinationals from China & India: Drivers & Strategies, Strengths & Weaknesses

Moderator: Mr. Tadahiro Asami, Secretary General,
Business and Industry Advisory Committee to the OECD (BIAC)

- Welspun, Akhil Jindal, President
- Mahindra, Bharat Doshi, Executive Director, Finance and Corporate Affairs
- ZTE, Cheng Lin, Managing Director, Western Europe
- Reliance Industries, Nikhil Meswani, Executive Director
- Baosteel
- Sinopec
- Haier
- ONGC

Comments: Andrea Goldstein, Senior Economist, OECD Development Centre

SESSION 2
10:45am – 11:45pm
Partnering with Indian and Chinese Multinationals:
Cross Perspectives

Moderator: Antoine van Agtmael, Chairman, Emerging Markets Management

- Bharti – AXA Life
- BBVA / CITIC, José Barreiro Hernández, Head of Global Businesses, BBVA
- Mittal Steel / Arcelor
- Mahindra / Renault, Rajesh Jejurikar, Managing Director, Mahindra Renault
- Suzlon Energy / REpower Systems AG
- Huawei / Telefonica, Sun Yafang, Chair, Huawei & Juan Antonio Mielgo Carrizo, Chief Economist, Telefonica
- Tata Steel / Corus, Alan Rosling, Executive Director, Tata Sons Ltd

Comments: Ken Davies, OECD-China investment co-operation Lead Manager, OECD

Roundtable
11:45am – 12:45pm
Indian and Chinese Multinationals, a Comparative Perspective

Moderator: Arnab Das, Managing Director, Head of Emerging Markets Research & Capital markets, Dresdner Kleinwort Weisserstein

Joël Ruet, London School of Economics
Alan Rosling, Executive Director, Tata Sons Ltd
Antoine van Agtmael, Emerging Markets Management

LUNCH: 13:00pm

The official luncheon will be presided by the OECD Secretary-General Angel Gurría

