

Table of contents

Preface: From indicators to action	3
Better policies for men and women	4
OECD work on gender equality in developing countries	6
1. Population
Men and women in the populations of OECD countries	7
Total fertility rates	8
Immigration	9
2. Education
Students with disabilities, learning difficulties and disadvantages	10
Student performance	11
Tertiary education	12
University graduates by field of study	13
3. Labour market
Inactive youths	14
Gender wage gaps	15
Employment	16
Unemployment	17
Self employment	18
Working hours	19
Occupations of men and women	20
Immigrants and employment	21
4. Political and economic power
Women in parliament	22
Managerial and professional posts	23
5. Social issues
Life satisfaction	24
Social isolation	25
Prison population	26
6. Health
Life expectancy at birth	27
Causes of death	28
Tobacco consumption	29
Overweight and obese	30

Acknowledgements:

This brochure has been prepared by Derek Blades, with Mark Pearson, Head of the OECD Social Policy Division as editor. Contributors from across the Organisation deserve the real credit for the existence of this brochure, however, for all the work they have undertaken in developing gender statistics over the years. The enthusiasm of the OECD Gender group was essential in getting the project completed. Particular thanks are due to Pauline Fron, Lynda Hawe and Valentina Kostyleva.