

Dr. Egle Bileviciute was born in 1976, in Klaipeda, Lithuania. She is currently Associated Professor at the Department of Administrative Law and Procedure of Mykolas Romeris University. She is teaching students of Mykolas Romeris University in such subjects: law of research and studies, administrative procedure, social changes and administrative law, crime investigation. She defended her doctoral thesis “Lithuania criminalistic information system: modern state and new model” and received her PhD in Social Science (Law) in 2003. She was granted as associated professor in 2007. She has enough experience in implementation and preparation of national and international projects. She is experienced in processing of data and she knows statistical methods for social scientific researches. Her current research interest includes law of research and studies, management of research, administrative law, forensic science, legal informatics, implementation of IT in law.

Eglė Bilevičiūtė, Mykolas Romeris University, Faculty of Law, Department of Administrative Law and Procedure, PhD, Assistant Professor, Ateities 20, LT-08303 Vilnius, Lithuania, tel. +370 686 49690, e-mail: eglek@mruni.lt, home page: <http://eglek.home.mruni.lt/>

