The Education Reform Initiative of South Eastern Europe – objectives and cooperation in SEE

Aspasija Hadžišće
Executive Director of the ERI SEE Agency

Sarajevo, 3-4 July 2008

Content:

1. Development of the educational cooperation in SEE
2. ERI SEE work in the thematic areas:
 - Lifelong Learning
 - European Qualifications Framework and national qualifications frameworks
 - Quality and Equity in Education
 - The “Knowledge Triangle”: education, research and innovation

New phenomenon raised in the period of radical change and crisis – new states and new regimes

- Learning was seen as a tool for building new democratic values, developing tolerance, mutual trust, etc.

1998 – Austrian presidency of the Council of the EU. Graz Conference “European Educational Co-operation for Peace, Stability and Democracy” – Graz Process

1999 – Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe
the Graz Process was put in charge of the coordination of the Task Force Education and Youth Principle goal: to prepare, facilitate and support the participation of the countries of the region into the wider European Area of Education.

(Re)-establishment of networks of educational experts, initiatives and institutions at local, regional, European and institutional level.

Systematically involved key European and international organisations and institutions active in SEE and in the education reform area.

2000-2001: Quick Start Measures – substantial number of cross-border networking projects (8,5 MEUR)

- South Eastern European Education Cooperation Network (SEE ECN)
- OECD Thematic Reviews contributed to formulation of national reform priorities and strategies

Shift from project level to a long-term systemic approach.

Changed framework for education reforms: from contribution to post-conflict stabilisation of the region, to contribution for ensuring the individual European perspective of the SEE countries.

2003 – Thessaloniki Declaration from the EU Summit committed itself to fostering the European perspective of the countries of the Western Balkans.

Nicosia 2003 – Memorandum of Understanding on strengthening regional co-operation initiated by the Ministries of Education and Higher Education in SEE and the Task Force Education and Youth.

Signatory countries: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Republic of Macedonia, Moldova, Montenegro, UNMIK/PISG Kosovo, Romania and Serbia, as well as the Task Force Education and Youth and the Stability Pact.

Donor countries: Austria, The Netherlands, Norway, Switzerland.

The SEE countries committed themselves to the goals of the Lisbon strategy for the establishment of a knowledge based society throughout Europe:

- “Detailed Work Programme on the Follow-up of the Objectives of Education and Training Systems in Europe”
- Bologna Process
- Copenhagen Process

EDUCATION REFORM INITIATIVE
OF SOUTH EASTERN EUROPE

Educational cooperation in South Eastern Europe 2004-2007

Education Reform Initiative of South Eastern Europe (ERI SEE) was proposed as a regional platform for co-operation in the education area & interface between ongoing national reforms in SEE and current trends and developments in the education sector at EU level.

Croatia hosts ERI SEE since 2004.

In 2006 the ERI SEE Agency started its work.

May 2007 Istanbul Memorandum of understanding between the Ministers responsible for education, science and research in SEE, the Stability Pact and the Task Force Education and Youth.

Commitment to EU, European and international initiatives:

- Detailed Work Programme "Education and Training 2010"
- Copenhagen Process, including mutual recognition of qualifications and issues of mobility
- Bologna Process, including mutual recognition of qualifications and issues of mobility
- Development of sustainable research activities within the European Research Area
- Implementation of Education for All and of the education objectives of the Milenium Development Goals
