¹ The CRS profile summarises the commitments and disbursements reported by donors to the OECD Creditor Reporting System on the aid categories most closely associated with Aid for Trade as defined by the WTO Task Force, specifically support for trade policy and regulations, trade development, trade-related infrastructure, building productive capacity and trade-related adjustment (available from 2008 only).

3 HOW DO YOU IMPLEMENT YOUR TRADE STRATEGY?

Ownership

Q3.1 Who is responsible for overseeing and coordinating the implementation of your trade strategies including activities funded by ODA?

- A national committee is responsible for coordination and implementation.
- The Trade Department has a coordinating role but implementation is overseen by each relevant department separately.
- The national aid agency has the main coordinating role but implementation is overseen by each relevant department separately.
- There is no central coordination department. Each relevant department is separately responsible for implementation.
- Other, please describe:

If you have (or are in the process of establishing) a national committee, please describe its main functions, its membership (e.g. ministries, private sector), frequency of its meetings and to whom the committee reports. [Please describe and exemplify below.]

Trade is primarily handled by the Ministries of Finance and the Economy (Industry and Commerce) and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Trade. Their work is assisted in the main by different committees on external negotiations and the CARICOM Single Market and the Economy. However, there is a Trade Coordinator who functions as the facilitator between the Ministries, Departments and Agencies on trade and related matters. The officer is also responsible for the European Development Fund (EDF) projects and programmes in the country

Q3.2 Do you engage in dialogue with the private sector and other key domestic stakeholders about the formulation and implementation of your trade strategy?

- Nearly always
- Regularly
- Rarely
- Not sure/ NA

If you do, please describe your main stakeholders and the focus and frequency of your dialogue. [Please describe and exemplify below.]

The Antigua and Barbuda Chamber of Commerce is the main private sector partner with the Government. However, the Employers Federation also enjoys a healthy relations with there Government where information is regularly shared between the parties. Furthermore, dialogue is held between the parties as the need arise. However, the Chamber and the Employers Federation are often invited to consultations which are utilized as a transparency mechanism to involve the private sector into the frabric of policy making. Additionally, they are usually given documents for their comments/input prior to the Government adopting any position on domestic, regional or international matters.

For Least-Developed Countries participating in the Enhanced Integrated Framework (EIF):

Q3.3 Is your EIF focal point and committee responsible for overseeing and coordinating all your trade agenda?

Yes No Not sure/ NA

If no, please describe the different arrangements:

Working with external partners: harmonisation and alignment

Q3.4 In your Aid for Trade programs, how often do donors co-ordinate and align through:

Own monitoring and evaluation arrangements	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Own monitoring but joint/donor evaluation

If you use nearly always or frequently your own monitoring and/or evaluation arrangements, can you please provide examples of your methodology and results? [Please describe and exemplify below.]

Mutual Accountability

Q3.6 Have you established mechanisms/procedures to discuss with the relevant donors the outcome and impact of your trade-related programmes?

Yes No Not sure/ NA

If yes, please can you describe and exemplify them?

Generally, such procedures include the conduct of a review, audit or allowing external monitors to visit the programme or projects and speak with stakeholders to ensure that the intervention meets with the logframe and objectives. There is also methodology employed to measure success rate of implementation and impact.

Priorities for improvement

Q3.7 What are your government's priorities to improve the implementation and effectiveness of the aid for trade it receives? Please rank the top three in order of importance.

- Greater say in the design of aid for trade interventions:
- Stronger donor focus on capacity development:
- Better predictability of aid for trade funding:
- More extensive use of Budget Support (or Trade Sectoral Wide Approaches)
- More regular joint-donor implementation actions
- More harmonised reporting requirements
- More frequent joint donor-partner implementation efforts
- More systematic use of joint donor-partner monitoring and evaluation
- Other, please describe:

Please, describe in detail the improvements needed in your top priority area

Sharing Knowledge

Q3.8 Please identify and rank three areas of interventions (see Question 1.2 for a list of examples) where aid for trade has been most effective at raising trade capacity in your country.

(Please explain your choice)

Area 1 : Trade Facilitation

Area 2 : Competitiveness

Area 3 : Regional Integration

Q3.9 Are there any particular examples of your aid-for-trade processes, programmes or projects that have obtained good results that you think could contribute to the development of good practices?

[If so, please describe them below and attach any relevant documents.]

- End of Section 3 -

Please feel free to provide additional information on the implementation of your donor supported trade-related programmes and projects, i.e. aid for trade.

4 ADDRESSING TRADE CAPACITY CONSTRAINTS AT THE REGIONAL LEVEL

Q4.1 Do your trade strategies specifically address regional trade capacity challenges?

Yes No Not sure/ NA

If YES, please describe them:

Antigua and Barbuda's trade policy is in conformity with its obligations enshrined within the Revised CARICOM Treaty and Treaty of Basseterre. Accordingly, programme are designed in conjunction with donors to tackle with our capacity constraint through either the OECS or CARICOM Secretariats or the Caribbean Negotiating Machinery (CRNM).

Q4.2 Do you participate in regional dialogues, programmes or activities aimed at promoting regional integration?

Yes No Not sure/ NA

If YES, can you tell us in how many of these you participate in and describe the most important ones to you? [Please describe below.]

As the National Authorizing Officer for the European Development Fund Programme in Antigua and Barbuda, I participate in meetings of the CARIFORUM Council of Ministers. Although CARIFORUM is the regional framework to deal with the EU, CARICOM utilizes the framework to engage the Dominican Republic, Haiti and Cuba into meaningful dialogue on a number of issues. Moreover, the ethos of CARICOM and its Organs promotes regional integration and the cordination of sectoral policies. The same is true for the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States where countries like Antigua and Barbuda have agreed for promote joint arrangements and convene regular meetings. I participate in Trade and Economic Development meetings, those relating to CARIFORUM as well. Representastion is at the officials, Ministerial and and as part of the Prime Minister's Delegation to Heads of Governments meetings..

Q4.3 Do you know if these regional dialogues, programs, and/or institutions receive aid for trade?

Yes, they do No, they don't I don't know/ NA

If YES, are you an active participant in the regional dialogues, programs and/or institutions?

Yes No Not sure/ NA

Q4.4 Do you participate in or benefit from aid-for-trade programmes implemented at the regional level?

Yes No Not sure/ NA

If YES, please describe the main benefits. [Please describe and quantify whenever possible.]

- End of Section 4 -

Please feel free to provide any additional information concerning the regional dimension of your trade strategies:
