

Nora Dihel joined the OECD in 2001 as a consultant in the Trade Directorate, where her responsibilities included the assessment of benefits from services liberalisation and the analysis of issues related to trade and development. She has been managing the Trade in Services in South Eastern Europe project since 2002. Her current work programme focuses on the economic implications of liberalising trade in services, economies in transition and regional trade integration.

Ms Dihel was educated at the University of Economics in Bucharest, the European Institute of the University of Hamburg, and the University of Western Ontario in London (Ontario). She received her Doctorate degree from the University of the Federal Armed Forces Hamburg, Germany.

List of selected publications

“Quantification Of Costs To National Welfare From Barriers To Services Trade - A Literature Review”, Working Party Paper of the Trade Committee published in OECD (2003) Quantifying the Benefits of Liberalising Trade in Services, Paris.

“Quantification of the Costs to National Welfare from Barriers to Services Trade: Scoping Paper, Working Party Paper of the Trade Committee, published in OECD (2003) Quantifying the Benefits of Liberalising Trade in Services, OECD, Paris.

“Tariff Bindings, Unused Protection and Agricultural Trade Liberalisation”, co-authored with Peter Walkenhorst, published in OECD Economic Studies No. 36, 2003/1, pp. 231-249.

OECD Working Papers

2003

“Stylised Facts on Trade in Services in South Eastern European (SEE) Countries”, Working Party Paper of the Trade Committee with Transition Economies, also available on the OECD CD-ROM: Toolkit for Trade Policy Makers in South Eastern Europe.

“Barriers to Trade in Services in South Eastern European (SEE) Countries – How Much Do They Matter?”, Working Party Paper of the Trade Committee with Transition Economies, also available on the OECD CD-ROM: Toolkit for Trade Policy Makers in South Eastern Europe.

“Domestic Business Environment for Service Providers in South Eastern European (SEE) Countries” Working Party Paper of the Trade Committee with Transition Economies, also available on the OECD CD-ROM: Toolkit for Trade Policy Makers in South Eastern Europe.

“Developing Policy Recommendations for Regional Co-Operation in Trade in Services in South Eastern Europe”, co-authored with Raed Safadi, Working Party Paper of the Trade Committee with Transition Economies, also available on the OECD CD-ROM: Toolkit for Trade Policy Makers in South Eastern Europe.

2002

“The Impact of the Terrorist Attacks of 11 September 2001 on International Trading and Transport Activities”, co-authored with Peter Walkenhorst, OECD Working Paper, 2002.