

Maria Böhmer Minister of State in the Federal Chancellery Federal Government Commissioner for Migration, Refugees, and Integration, Germany

Born on April 23, 1950 in Mainz; Catholic; unmarried

Since November 2005

Minister of State in the Federal Chancellery and Federal Government Commissioner for Migration, Refugees, and Integration

Until September 2001

National Chair of the CDU Women's Organization (FU)

Since November 2001

Chair of the CDU Women's Organization (FU) in the State of Rhineland-Palatinate

Since 2001

Professor at Heidelberg Teachers College

Since February 2000

Deputy Chair of the CDU/CSU Group in Parliament

1991 - 1993

Deputy Chair of the CDU Platform Committee and Chair of the Subcommittee on Ecology and Social Market Economy

Since 1990

Member of the German Bundestag

Since 1985

Member of the CDU

1982

Professorial qualification in Education at the University of Mainz, periods of research at the Universities of Cambridge and Augsburg

1974

Doctorate at the University of Mainz

1968 - 1971

Studied Mathematics, Physics, Political Science, and Education, State Examination

Further commitments: Deputy chairwoman of the ZDF Television Council, patron of the association "Dialysis patients of Germany", initiator of the nationwide campaign "Red card for TV" against violence on television.