

Table of contents

Assessment and recommendations

I. Recent trends and short-term prospects

Overview
Factors shaping domestic demand
Foreign trade and the current external account
The labour market
Price and wage inflation
The outlook to 2004

II. Macroeconomic policies

The effect of monetary and fiscal policies on long-term economic growth
Macroeconomic policies in the short run
Monetary policy
Fiscal policy
Issues of fiscal sustainability
Progress towards reforming the tax system

III. Policies to maintain high output growth

Rapid economic growth was underpinned by strong productivity gains
There was a rapid uptake of information and communication technology...
... but structural reforms have played a key role in raising Australia's economic potential
Faster growth and the role of labour
The role of skills in the growth process
Going forward
Remaining problems in industrial relations
Labour market assistance
Welfare reform: policies to raise participation
Education and training
National Competition Policy
Financial system reform
Sustainable development in Australia

IV. The economic impact of migration in Australia

Introduction
Migration policy
Economic aspects
Impact on output and incomes
Fiscal impacts
Conclusions

Notes

Annexes

- I. Bibliography
- II. Policy issues in periods of declining public debt
- III. The New Tax System
- IV. Business tax reform implementation
- V. Some aspects of Australian Immigration Policy
- VI. Calendar of main economic events

Boxes

1. Options available to the Commonwealth government for the CGS market: An overview
2. ICT and productivity acceleration in Australia and the United States in the 1990s
3. The Job Network System - main features and an assessment
4. The main features of the Australian Income Support System
5. Competitive neutrality requirements for Government businesses
6. Integration of policies across different environmental sustainable development areas

Annex

- A1. Australian points system - General Skilled Categories

Tables

1. Demand and output
2. Household assets
3. Current account of the balance of payment
4. The labour market
5. Costs and prices
6. Short-term prospects
7. Changes in official interest rates
8. Financial aggregates
9. Commonwealth government budget developments
10. Commonwealth demographic spending in the longer term
11. Decomposition of potential output growth
12. Share of ICT investment in total non-residential investment
13. Contribution of ICT to labour productivity acceleration in Australia and the United States in the 1990s
14. International comparison of employment/population ratios and participation rates
15. Decomposition of country deviations from OECD average output per capita growth
16. Contribution of skill composition change to multifactor productivity growth
17. Implementing structural reform: an overview
18. Performance indicators: sustainable retirement incomes
19. The evolution of state pension benefits
20. The effect of taxation on portfolio returns inside and outside a superannuation fund
21. Structure and growth of total imports and imports of textiles, clothing and footwear
22. Average nominal and effective rates of assistance
23. The structure of bilateral aid programme by sector and country
24. Areas where soil conditions constrain agricultural yield
25. Water Run-off and diversions in Australia
26. Progress in establishing tradable water rights
27. Types of entry visa for Australia, 2000-2001
28. Budgetary impacts by visa class, 2001

Figures

1. Key indicators in international perspective
2. The current expansion compared
3. Household debt and debt-service burden
4. Housing affordability and dwelling approvals
5. Corporate profits and business investment
6. Corporate gearing

7. Foreign trade indicators
8. Value of exports
9. Employment and unemployment
10. Actual and expected inflation
11. Confidence indicators
12. Economic growth and inflation in a long-term perspective
13. Money and capital market interest rates
14. International comparison of long-term interest rates
15. Nominal and real lending rates
16. Exchange rates
17. Factors affecting monetary conditions
18. The Taylor rule
19. Fiscal consolidation in selected OECD countries
20. Government finance
21. Commonwealth general government net debt and net assets position
22. Age-related spending in selected OECD countries
23. Commonwealth fiscal balance position in the longer term
24. Growth performance: an international comparison
25. Estimates of potential output growth
26. Growth in labour productivity over productivity cycles, 1964-65 to 1999-2000
27. Change in multi-factor productivity growth in selected OECD countries
28. Factors promoting the use of ICT
29. Workplace pay agreements
30. International comparison of income and productivity levels
31. Working days lost in labour disputes
32. Employment protection legislation
33. Public social security expenditure: an international comparison
34. Indicators of welfare use and spending
35. Education indicators in comparison
36. Transition Indicators
37. Electricity prices in industry and households
38. Railway system performance: an international comparison
39. Effective marginal tax rates for the elderly
40. Average tariff rates by country
41. Overseas-born as a percentage of the total Australian population, 1901-1996
42. Foreign-born by origin, principal countries at birth at selected censuses of the 20th century
43. Population growth: natural increase and migration, 1977-2001
44. Permanent migration by main visa category, 1985-2002
45. Net Permanent and Long-term temporary migration, 1987-2000
46. Unemployment and participation by age, Australia and foreign-born, August 2002
47. Unemployment and participation by date of entry, region of origin and sex, August 2002
48. Immigrant occupational status by visa type
49. Educational qualifications: immigrants and Australians
50. Age distribution: permanent migrants and resident population, 1996

Annex

- A1. Points test score distribution