

Agnieszka Chlon-Dominczak
Undersecretary of State
Ministry of Labour and Social Policy
POLAND

Agnieszka Chlon-Dominczak is Undersecretary of State in the Ministry of Labour and Social Policy, where she was responsible for finalising the legislation related to the implementation of the pension reform in Poland.

Currently, she is responsible for implementation of the government programme 50+ as well as equal treatment and co-ordination of social security systems.

Previously she was, among others, a Director of Department for Economic Analyses and Forecasting in the Ministry of Labour and Social Policy in Poland.

She completed her Ph. D. on the issue of ageing populations and its impact on pension systems.

She was a member of a pension reform team in Poland, preparing the reform of 1999.

She has co-operated on various projects related to pension systems with the World Bank, ILO and OECD and is the author of several publications within the field.