

ULRICH SCHATZ

Ulrich Schatz (German) is the Principal Director, International Affairs at the European Patent Office (EPO) in Munich, Germany since 1977. Prior to joining the EPO, he was a Member of the Board of Directors at the International Patent Institute in The Hague from 1970-1977. He also worked as a Principal Administrator, at the European Commission.

Ulrich has published books on French anti-trust law and a series of articles in the field of patent legislation, in particular biotechnological inventions.

He studied Law in Germany at the University of Munich.