

Progress towards tracking public and private climate finance

Side event at UNFCCC COP21

Tuesday 1 December, 11:15-12:45

Le Bourget Conference Centre, Blue Zone, Delegations Area, Hall 3, Pavilion 7

This event will outline initiatives and collaborations in tracking public and private climate finance. It will include presentations and updates from the OECD Development Assistance Committee (DAC), the OECD-hosted Research Collaborative on Tracking Private Climate Finance, international finance institutions, civil society and country delegates.

Speakers and panellists will reflect on implications for the UNFCCC in relation to:

- Recent achievements and next steps on data and methods for tracking public and mobilised private finance for climate action in developing countries
- Remaining gaps and what is needed to support a robust MRV system for climate finance

Programme

Setting the scene on tracking public and mobilised private climate finance	Stephanie Ockenden/Julia Benn, OECD DAC Raphaël Jachnik, OECD-hosted Research Collaborative
Latest developments from the Joint-MDB reporting initiative	Jane Ebinger, World Bank
Perspectives on recipient country initiatives	Sandra Guzmán, Grupo de Financiamiento Climático para América Latina y el Caribe (GFLAC)
Perspectives from an OECD member country	A representative of the Swiss delegation

Followed by questions from the floor and discussion

Event chaired by Haje Schütte, Head of Statistics and Development Finance Division
OECD Development Co-operation Directorate

www.oecd.org/dac/stats/oecd-dac-climate-change-external-development-finance-statistics.htm

Contact: stephanie.ockenden@oecd.org

www.oecd.org/env/researchcollaborative

Contact: raphael.jachnik@oecd.org

www.oecd.org/environment/cc/cop21.htm