OECD Auditors Alliance Launch Meeting
Paris, March 26 2018

Opportunities for public sector audit innovation

Tomaž Vesel, President
Where are opportunities for SAIs?

Audit reports CANNOT be just critical towards the past issues, but MUST also be visionary and sustainably oriented.
SDGs represent an opportunity

Slovenian Development Strategy 2030
Read more >

- National strategy
- Implementation
- Monitoring the Effects

Opportunities for public sector audit innovation | Paris, March 26 2018
1. Environmental aspect

Slovenia has the second highest biodiversity index within the EU

60% of the country is covered by woods

97% of used water comes from good quality underground water sources (aquifers)

Audit report: Managing Natura 2000 areas

More than 37% of Slovenia’s territory is part of Natura 2000
2. Social segment - demographic trends

1.4 / 1
Only 1.4 active person supports 1 pensioner

85%
of young people
(15-29 years old)
are still living with their parents

Youth in numbers
21.9% of population
15.9% of population

2000
2016

Audit report:
Efficiency of youth policy
Read more >
3. Economic view - migrations

Newborn named ‘Slovenija’

Audit report on Integration of humanitarian migrants
Read more >
Greening the SAI
Urban beehives on the roof

Read more >
Communication is everything
The use of public funds in the future strongly depends on our efforts for sustainable development.

Key opportunities for SAIs:
1. What to audit
2. How to present it